Not Independent

We do not charge you a fee for our advice on risk insurance policies as we are paid a commission by the product provider. In all other cases, we charge a fee for our advice services and do not receive commissions or other payments from product providers.

Provision of Financial Advice

We recognise that the objectives and personal circumstances of each client are different. Where we provide personal advice, we will listen to you to understand your objectives and circumstances. We will also ask questions and make further enquiries to make sure we provide advice which is in your best interests.

When we first provide personal advice to you it will be explained thoroughly and documented in a Statement of Advice ('SoA') which you can take away and read. The SoA will explain the basis for our advice, the main risks associated with the advice, the cost to you of implementing the advice, the benefits we receive and any conflicts of interest which may influence the advice.

For administration platforms, managed funds and personal risk insurance products we will provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement ('PDS'). This contains information to help you understand the product/s being recommended.

At all times you are able to contact us and ask questions about our advice and the products we recommend. You can provide instructions to us in writing, via phone or via email. In some cases, we may require you to provide signed instructions.

We may provide further advice to you to keep your plan up to date for changes in your circumstances, changes in the law and changes in the economy and products. If we provide further advice it will typically be documented in a Record of Advice ('RoA') which we retain on file. You can request a copy of the RoA document at any time up to 7 years after the advice is provided.

Fees, Commissions and Other benefits we may receive

All fees/commissions are payable to SFDS Pty Ltd, whom then distributes fees received to Quinlan Holdings Pty Ltd. Joel Carty is paid a salary from Quinlan Holdings that may include a bonus. Types of fees and commissions may include:

- Advice Preparation Fee
The Advice Preparation fee includes meetings and discussions to determine your needs and objectives and collect sufficient data to enable advice to be provided, analysis and determination of appropriate recommendations, and documentation and presentation of our recommendations in a Statement of Advice. The fee is based on the scope and complexity of advice provided to you. We will agree the fee with you before providing you with advice.
- Advice Implementation Fee
If you decide to proceed with our advice we may charge a fee for the time we spend to assist you with implementation. The fee will be outlined in the SoA.
- Ongoing Services Fees / Annual Services Fees
Our ongoing/annual service fees depend on the ongoing service that we provide to you. They may be a % of your portfolio value or an agreed fixed fee which is paid monthly. Our services and fees will be set out in a formal engagement and agreed with you each year.
- Insurance Commissions
Solace Financial may receive a one-off upfront commission when you take out an insurance policy we recommend. We may also receive ongoing commission payments for as long as you continue to hold the policy. These commissions will vary depending on the recommended insurance product and will be set out in the SoA or RoA.
- Dial up Brokerage
Solace Financial may receive dial up brokerage if brokerage is set above the standard rates charged by the product provider. If dial up brokerage is charged, these fees will be set out in the SoA or RoA.
- Other Benefits
We may also receive additional benefits by way of sponsorship of educational seminars, conferences or training days. Details of any benefits received above $100 will be maintained on a register which is available to you on request.
